

Multiple choice questions

- ( ~~B~~ ) <sup>C</sup> 1. Which of the following statements about HTML file naming principles is incorrect? (A) The extension of an HTML document can be htm or html (B) It is best to use half-formed English letters or numbers when naming files (C) Special symbols such as $ can be used when naming files (D) Try to avoid spaces in the file name.
- ( ~~B~~ ) 2. When writing a web page using HTML, write a line of "<title> Kazakumazu </title>", where will the sentence "Kazazoo" appear? (A) Function bar (B) Top of document content (C) Menu bar (D) Title bar of the browser.
- ( ~~A~~ ) 3. Which of the following elements is used to set information about the HTML file, such as encoding method, abstract, keywords, server application name, IE compatibility, etc.? (A) <head> (B) <meta> (C) <base> (D) <title>.
- ( ~~D~~ ) 4. Which of the following elements is used to display some message to the user when the browser does not support JavaScript, or when the user prohibits JavaScript execution? (A) <link> (B) <script> (C) <base> (D) <noscript>.
- ( ~~A~~ ) 5. Which of the following syntax should be used to include comments in HTML? (A) <!--XXX--> (B) <?--XXX--> (C) <#--XXX--> (D) <*--XXX-->.

1. <title>Kazakumazu </title>
Kazazoo

1. ✓ Extensions
✓ half-formed letters/numbers
✓ lowercase
✓ avoid space