Multiple choice questions

(C) 1. What is incorrect about the following description of "responsive web design"? (A) Also known as "responsive web design" (B) is a technology that allows web content to adjust the presentation of the picture according to the width of different devices. (C) Referred to as CSS (D) The layout of the page can be automatically changed when the web page is viewed in different resolutions.

(A) 2. Which of the following statements about "one-page websites" is incorrect? (A) There will be multiple sub-pages in the website   (B) Easy to set up and maintain (C) Suitable for browsing on smartphones or tablets (D) Simple and clear way of browsing.

(D) 3. Which of the following descriptions of website construction is incorrect? (A) The theme of the website must be established before further relevant information can be collected (B) After the website design is completed, check whether the links in the web page are correct   (C) The complete website architecture is the basis for building   the website (D) After the website is completed and published on the Internet, You no longer have to maintain the content of the web pages.

(B) 4. Which of the following is not the web programming language used on the server side? (A) ASP   (B) HTML   (C) PHP   (D) CGI。

(D) 5. What is the way to adjust the website by understanding the operating rules of the search engine to improve the ranking of the target website in the relevant search engine? (A) RWD   (B) CPM   (C) CPC   (D) SEO。

responsive
web design

Search engine
Optimizacion